

Welcome Back to School Night

Thursday, August 3, 2017

School's Website: www.Liholiho.Org

Welcome Back to School Night is an opportunity for students in Grades 1- 5 to visit their new classrooms with their parents/guardians, meet their new teachers and drop off school supplies. Class lists will no longer be posted in public places due to a new DOE privacy procedure. Thus, information will be distributed by school personnel designated for each grade level at our Welcome Back to School event. The grade level's representative will provide you with your child's information card. Attached is a yellow SIS form to update emergency contacts, changes in address and other information, including updating land phone and cell phone numbers. Bring the completed SIS form to Welcome Back to School Night and receive your child's class information.

Parents/guardians must report to the cafeteria first.

Please label all school supplies with student's name.

A separate parent orientation is planned for Kindergarten.

Parking will be available on our field 15 minutes before each session.

Please enter via Maunaloa Avenue. Ample street parking is also available.
